nev-er lifts its gen- - tie head, Save to the star-lit skies, And when they fade be-fore the morn, It droops a-way and dies.

RALL:
Cello Voice.

There is a gem deep

RALL:

bu - - ri-ed Be - neath Pe - ru - vian mines, Whose phos-phores-cent bril-lian-cy By day-light nev-er shines. Down in the darksome ca-vern, Where sun-light nev-er gleams, It spreads its mild soft ra-di-ance, O'er sub-ter-ra-nean streams. DIM.

But sweet-er than the flow-er, And pure-er than the gem, Are the jewels bright that spar- - - kle In Friend-ship a-

- dem. Pre-serve through sun-shine and through storm, Their rays of peer-less light, For though they gild pros - pe - - - ct, They bright-est shine by night.
